PICASSO PICTURES

Adobe Flash animation for web and TV adverts for the new affordable American medical insurance introduced by Barack Obama, initially for the state of Kentucky. The links below show the finished projects.

Kynect Healthcare <https://vimeo.com/69325771>

The characters throughout this film I animated are, the construction worker with the beard, the couple walking to get their letter, the lady at the garage, the lady with the satchel and the lady in purple.

Kynect Web Film <https://vimeo.com/68439006>

The characters I animated throughout this film are, the dark-skinned lady (with hoop earrings) and her husband, the blonde lady, the mum and baby, the African American dad on his tractor and his family, and later in their car, the lady in the hat and her husband with the red pickup truck, part of the lady picking flowers, and the doctors and nurses.

Kynect Balloon World <https://vimeo.com/86509632>

The characters I animated in this film are, the African American family in the diner and later in the balloon, the mum in a pink blouse and her son also in the diner, and the girl and her dad with the globe.
